Re: FM Rule Making Docket 04-218
Las Vegas and Pecos, New Mexico

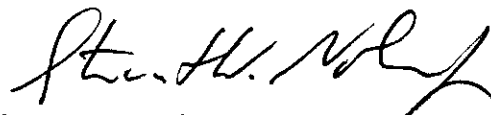

Dear Ms. Dortch:

This is to advise the Commission, on behalf of our client Meadows Media, LLC, that Mr. Willison Gormly has withdrawn his expression of interest in an allotment of Channel 296C1 to Cimarron, New Mexico.

Meadows Media, LLC submitted the petition for rulemaking in the above-referenced allotment proceeding. In a letter dated December 22, 2004, Mr. Gormly informed the FCC that his proposed use for Channel 296 in Cimarron, New Mexico, was problematic and therefore should not prevent the FCC from granting the petition by Meadows Media, LLC. To confirm Mr. Gormly's intentions, attached hereto is his sworn declaration.

If there are any questions concerning this matter, please contact Barry Wood of this firm or the undersigned.

Yours truly,

Stuart W. Nolan, Jr.
Counsel for Meadows Media, LLC

DECLARATION OF WILLISON H. GORMLY

I, Willison H. Gormly, hereby declare, under penalty of perjury, that

(1) I submitted a letter, dated December 22, 2004, to the FCC, wherein I detailed certain problems with my proposal for the allotment of Channel 296C1 to Cimarron, New Mexico. For the reasons stated therein, I hereby withdraw my expression of interest in the allotment of such channel to Cimarron. I have no objection to the grant of the petition for rule making filed in this docket by Meadows Media, LLC.

(2) Neither Meadows Media, LLC, nor any other party has promised or paid any consideration to me in connection with the withdrawal of my expression of interest in Channel 296.

Dated this 19 day of July, 2005.
